

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Therefore they should give equal prominence to coverage of both democrats and republicans. Using their stations as a propaganda tool is fundamentally wrong and is anti-democratic. It seems to me that the FCC should not renew their licence if they behave in a manner which opposes the fundamental values of this country.